PRESS RELEASE

For Immediate Release
December 17, 2012

According to Plaquemine Police Chief Orian Gulotta and Iberville Parish Sheriff Brett Stassi, Tyrell Henderson, 25 (3/31/87), of 58745 Belleview Road Apt 7, Plaquemine, was arrested on the following charges: 3 counts of simple burglary of a vehicle; illegal possession of stolen things; possession with intent to distribute marijuana; and 2 counts of possession of a fire arm by a convicted felon. Henderson has an extensive criminal record beginning in 2008 for various drug charges and burglaries.

Collaborative efforts between the Plaquemine Police Department and the Iberville Parish Sheriff's Office resulted in the arrest Tyrell Henderson who is believed to be responsible for a rash of car burglaries that occurred in the City of Plaquemine and the surrounding areas. Law enforcement officers recovered numerous electronic devices, jewelry, firearms, and purses. The investigation is ongoing and more charges are expected to be filed.

Officials remind citizens to stay vigilant especially during the holidays. Remember to keep your vehicles locked and keep any valuables out of sight. Please report any suspicious activities to the Iberville Parish Sheriff's Office or the Plaquemine Police Department.
